9. He sendeth the springs to strong streams or lakes,
 Which run do full swift among the huge hills;
 Where both the wild asses their thirst often slakes,
 And beasts of the mountains thereof drink their fills.

10. By these pleasant springs and rivers most clear,
 The fowls of the air abide shall and dwell;
 Who movèd by nature to hop here and there,
 Among the green branches their songs shall excel.

11. The mountains to moist the clouds he doth use;
 The earth with his works is wholly replete:
 So as the brute cattle he doth not refuse,
 But grass doth provide them, and herb for man's meat.

12. Yea, bread, wine, and oil he made for man's sake,
 His face to refresh, and heart to make strong.
 The cedars of Liban the great Lord did make,
 Which trees he doth nourish that grow up so long.
